ADTR DRAFT Policy Goals Revised

Through this policy, the Commission intends to provide an opportunity for all qualified individuals to attend a Colorado public institution by:

- 1. Informing an eligible pool of prospective students and affiliated constituencies regarding the unique roles and missions of Colorado's public institutions.
- 2. Establishing and clearly communicating performance based admission standards that reflect differentiated institutional role and mission to prospective students and affiliated constituents, which align to the:
 - a. Colorado High school graduation guidelines
 - b. Colorado guarantee transfer and state-wide articulation agreements
 - c. Colorado Remedial Education Policy
 - d. appropriate alternative pathways
- 3. Encouraging diversity by supporting the admission of applicants from underrepresented groups, applicants with special talents, and applicants with other unique circumstances.
- 4. Allowing institutional flexibility for making admissions decisions to support increased enrollment, persistence and graduation rates.

ADTR DRAFT Guiding Principles

Colorado's statewide admissions policy promotes access and provides a transparent and inclusive way for all prospective students and affiliated constituents to understand the multiple pathways to postsecondary education; the policy provides flexibility for all institutions and equity for all students and is based upon data, best practices and alignment with P-12, high school graduation guidelines, statewide remedial education policy, and transfer policy.
